

Alleluia! Christ is Risen! Here we are in these great fifty days of Easter celebrating our Risen Lord. We recently had an opportunity to discuss Easter at our house. One of the children was lamenting that Easter was now over as the Easter baskets and other accoutrements of celebration had been put away. We of course, trying to raise the most well-informed clergy kids explained that Easter was in fact 50 days long and was not over. The disbelief in what we were saying continued to mount and the incredulity heightened until one of the children retorted, "if Easter is really fifty days then why doesn't the Easter Bunny bring us stuff every day?" Once again bested by the minds of children.

Why is the Season of Easter fifty days? Scripture tells us that Jesus was with the disciples for 40 days until he ascended to be with God the Father. Ten days after the Ascension the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples and the church was born at what we now call 'Pentecost'. The word Pentecost means 'fiftieth day' and is so named because the Jewish festival of Shavuoth is always celebrated fifty days after the second day of Passover. We read in scripture that many people were gathered in Jerusalem for this festival when all this occurs.

In Easter especially we are focused on the absolute foundation of our faith - the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This act of God incarnate who takes on flesh and fulfills the Law establishes for us the hope of all Christians. That hope is a promise unlike any other, that there is something greater beyond this world and this time. That we have an eternity of a bodily resurrection in the Kingdom of God with all of creation. Sin and death have no hold over us. There is nothing to fear from those any longer. That is what we are celebrating in Easter and that is the cornerstone of the Christian faith. Nothing matters more in our teaching than that. There are definitely more things to learn and live out, but everything else builds upon that hope.

Our community, our parish family, is where we get to celebrate that and together seek out the vision of that kingdom. Classic Christian theology holds that receiving communion is that momentary vision of the Kingdom as we all gather at the rail to receive the sacrament. In many ways every Sunday, whether it is in the season of Easter or any other part of the church year is a celebration of the resurrection of our Lord. From the centrality of our worship our community branches out into so many wonderful opportunities for fellowship, connection, and family.

As we look toward Pentecost and the summer season many of our programs will take a break for the summer. It is a time for us to prepare for the year to come, plan out all the feasts, fasts, and festivals of the church, what programs and education we will offer, and envision ways in which our parish can thrive. If you have ideas for forums, for activities, if you have a desire to serve, to acolyte, to usher, to read, (there are way too many things to list here!) let me know! Let's have a conversation about discerning these things together. I invite you into a time of imagination and prayer as we continue these first months of what will be many years of ministry together.

LISTENING SESSIONS REFRESH BRUNCH: SUNDAY, JUNE 1

A little more than two years ago, many of you participated in our listening sessions project. At that time, we were in a significant transition as a parish, and we used the listening sessions to help us talk with one another about our congregational priorities, including our challenges and hopes for the future. Your participation in that process was impressive and enormously helpful as we used what you shared with us to help guide us through a successful transition that culminated in calling Kevin as our rector.

The wardens and vestry recently established a stewardship committee, which is being ably led by Jim Willer. The goal of the committee is to develop a comprehensive stewardship plan that can significantly support our parish mission while lessening our reliance on endowment funding. This financial goal was identified as a priority as we proceeded through the search process that led us to Kevin.

After considerable discussion, the stewardship committee, wardens and vestry have decided it important to revisit what we learned from you through the listening sessions process, and to reassess where we now are with respect to the key areas addressed.

Are our priorities the same, then as now?

- * What has changed?
- * Where have we made progress?
- * Where do we continue to face challenges?
- * What ideas do you have about how we can strengthen the vitality of our congregational life and live more fully into what God is calling us to be and do as a parish?

Your perspectives will then inform the stewardship plan that is currently in development and will help guide our parish leaders in the forthcoming year.

You do not need to have participated in the initial listening sessions process to participate in the Listening Sessions Refresh Brunch on Sunday, June 1 after the 10:00 am service. ALL ARE NEEDED AND WELCOME!

We plan to briefly review the process we initially used, including key lessons learned. We will also highlight our progress to date in each area presented. We will then break into small groups, each with a facilitator and scribe to hear your perspectives on our progress as described, and on the questions posed above. With the small group's permission, the scribe will only take notes on key ideas expressed; no identifying information will be shared. The facilitators/scribes will then identify themes that emerged across the groups and a report of these themes will be shared with the parish.

One of the things we learned through the listening sessions is that we need to share food with one another as often as possible and therefore, brunch will be served! (Look for the sign up online in this week's Mailchimp.)

We sincerely look forward to hearing your perspectives on what promises to be an informative, lively, and important discussion that will help shape the future of Christ Church Pittsford moving forward!

Many thanks,

The Stewardship Committee,

Jim Willer, Deb Lattime, Walter Hickey, Patty Sampson-Bouchard, Ann Barnum-Clemens, Natalie Mai-Dixon, Nicole DeBaal, David Bakken, Jeremy Brown and Daryl Sharp, Listening Session Lead

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND YOUTH GROUP

Happy Spring from Sunday School!

Sunday School will be in session through May 18. Volunteers are needed throughout May, so please contact Liz (sundayschool@christchurchpittsford.com) if you are interested in helping.

On June 8 (9:00 am service), when Bishop Kara visits Christ Church and celebrates Confirmations and Receptions, youth are invited to serve as acolytes/crucifer, readers, chalice ministers, ushers, and greeters. Please let Liz know if your youth is interested in participating. A sign-up will also be available. Children will have the opportunity to attend church that day, and there will be special activity bags that complement the theme of the Bishop's visit.

This Memorial Day (May 26), all children and youth are invited to come to Christ Church during the annual Pittsford parade to hand out water and lemonade to parade spectators. Please email Liz if your child is interested in participating in this annual tradition.

Attention Families! We are going to offer Vacation Bible School this summer in a completely new format. Starting Sunday, June 22, Vacation Bible School will meet five times during the 9:00 am service on the 2nd and 4th Sundays through August (6/22, 7/13, 7/27, 8/10, and 8/24). Come to as many as your schedule permits! There is no charge for this summer's VBS and volunteers (youth and adult) are always welcome to help with the fun. Please contact Liz if you have any questions.

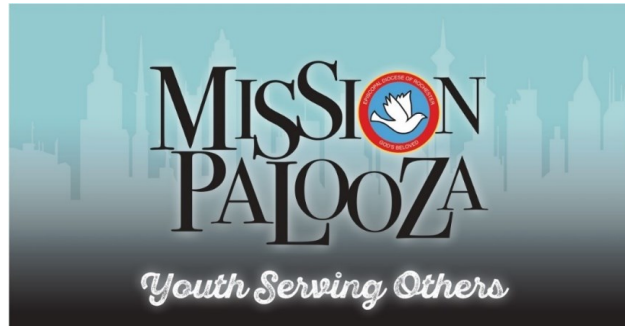

In news from the Nursery, many thanks to Kate Castleberry and Norah Bailey for a wonderful year with our youngest parishioners. Norah will return home for the summer after she finishes up her sophomore year at the Eastman School of Music, and we look forward to her return to Rochester in the fall. Congratulations to Ella Stewart, who has been a loyal Nursery Caregiver substitute for several years, on her graduation from St. John Fisher University with a degree in nursing.

We are happy to announce that Cecilia Blakeslee, a recent education graduate of Nazareth University, and Carma Welfel, a nursing student at St. John Fisher University, have joined us as Nursery Caregiver substitutes. They'll be working alongside Kate Castleberry and Tori Dennis (who is home from college) to provide nursery care this summer.

MISSIONPALOOZA

In youth news, Missionpalooza is back from Monday, July 28 through Thursday, July 31! Youth entering grades 7-12 next fall are invited to join us for four days of service projects in the Rochester area. We are currently working on setting up sites and have already made plans to visit St. Mark's and St. John's to help with their many gardens and the Episcopal Church Home to spend quality time with the residents playing games and eat lunch. Please sign up online at link on website by July 1 so we have an idea of how many to expect.

Hot Cross Buns for Palm Sunday!
Thank you!!!

OUTREACH

The Outreach Ministries has been busy helping our partner agencies this Spring. We have given the following grants from the proceeds of the Grate-Subtelnj Funds:

Family Promise - $3,000 to help support their transitional housing

St. Mark's and St. John's Episcopal Church - $3,000 to support their food self and gardens

Cameron Community - $3,000 for their programs

Pittsford Food Cupboard - $3,000 for buying food

Fostering Hope, NY - $1,000 for purchase of backpacks for children entering foster care

We have purchased vacation snacks for the neediest students at School #9, for February and Spring breaks.

We donated $5,000 from our long term fund to Cameron Community. This donation will help with the needed repairs to their food delivery truck.

Our Lenten donations in-gathering for cleaning supplies exceeded our expectations. We thank every one who so generously gave to this drive. We gave the in kind donations to Family Promise, A Meal and More, and to the Pittsford Food Cupboard. We had over $3,500 donated as well. We are discussing how we will distribute those gifts to the agencies in order to best meet their needs.

We meet the second Sunday of most months at 9 am in the library. We welcome you to join us.

FLAGS

Let's talk about flags. I love driving down Main Street and seeing our beautiful flags flapping in the wind around the tower doors! During the interim-rector's time another flag was added to the exterior of the building. A rainbow 'pride' flag. This flag, as most all of us know, represents the LGBTQIA+ community. Just as our Episcopal shield flag tells the world we are Episcopalians, the pride flag tells anyone passing by that anyone who identifies with that community is welcome here. Now that the weather is getting nicer and the flags will be able to be out more often, I've asked to ensure the pride flag to go back up as well. I have done this not because I think we need to pat ourselves on the back for being inclusive, not because we necessarily need to make any statements in the culture wars of the day, but because there are times when beloved children of God need to know they can seek God in his Holy Temple and be welcomed as they are.

I want to share a story with you from my previous parish that informs much of my thought on this. Every year Arkansas State University has a community fair for the new students. They invite all the local community businesses and organizations in the area to set up a table so the new students can be informed of the resources in the area. For this fair I would set up a table for the Episcopal Church, with flags, pamphlets, and of course candy so the students would stop and chat. The first year I did this, a student stopped a small distance from the table, reading the banner naming the church, looking at the flags (one of which was a stylized pride flag), warily looking at the pamphlets. The student then asked me, "So what exactly is this?" waving vaguely at the banner and table. I told them I was the priest at the local Episcopal Church. They nodded, "so you're a church. Like a God and Jesus church?" I said yes, that we were a God and Jesus church. "But you are ok with gay people?" Again I said yes, and told them the Episcopal church is welcoming and affirming of the LGBTQIA community. Then there was silence. The student looked again at the table and the displays. They turned again to me and quietly said, "I've spent my whole life here in Arkansas. I never knew there was a place I could go to church." That student had grown up being told that there was no place for them in church, no love from God to be shared for being who they were created to be.

That is why I believe displaying a pride flag is important as a church. Regardless of how inclusive we are and how much we can assume people know that, there is always the possibility that there is a child of God out there that doesn't know God loves them, that doesn't know Christ Church is a place where they will be welcomed and told that God loves them. That is why we do these little things to show the broader community who we are as we proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ.

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

Thursday, June 5 at 7:00 pm

Our selection for this meeting is The Friend by Sigrid Nunez. When a woman unexpectedly loses her lifelong best friend and mentor, she finds herself burdened with the dog he left behind. Now her own battle against grief is intensified by the mute suffering of a huge Great Dane, and by the threat of eviction. Increasingly obsessed with the dog's care, she comes dangerously close to unraveling. Elegiac and searching, The Friend is both a meditation on loss and celebration of human-canine devotion. (This information is provided by the publisher.) For more information, please contact Pam Burch, pburch1@rochester.rr.com.

NONFICTION BOOK CLUB

Tuesday, May 20, 2025, 3:00 pm

We will discuss The Upswing: How America Came Together a Century Ago and How We Can Do It Again by Robert Putnam with Shaylyn Garret. Deep accelerating inequality; unprecedented political polarization; vitriolic public discourse; a fraying social fabric; public and private narcissism -- Americans today seem to agree on only one thing: This is the worst of times. But we've been here before. During the Gilded Age of the late 1800s, America was highly individualistic, starkly unequal, fiercely polarized, and deeply fragmented, just as it is today. However, as the twentieth century opened, America began - slowly, unevenly, but steadily - more egalitarian, more cooperative, more generous; a society more focused on our responsibilities to one another and less focused on our narrower self-interest. Sometime during the 1960s, however, our nation turned another corner, and all of these trends reversed, leaving us in today's disarray. (www.goodreads.com)

We will take a break over the summer so our next meeting will be on Tuesday, September 16, 2025, to discuss Jesus and John Wayne: How White Evangelicals Corrupted a Faith and Fractured a Nation by Kristin Kobes du Mez. Jesus and John Wayne is a sweeping, revisionist history of the last seventy-five years of white evangelicalism, revealing how evangelicals have worked to replace the Jesus of the Gospels with an idol of rugged masculinity and Christian nationalism—or in the words of one modern chaplain, with “a spiritual badass.” ... the key to understanding this transformation is to recognize the centrality of popular culture in contemporary American evangelicalism.

Our meetings are in a hybrid format with in-person attendance and Zoom. To get more information about the book club, please contact Jim Baroody (jimbaroody@gmail.com).
