Our next book is The Weird Sisters by Eleanor Brown. The Andreas family is one of readers. Their father, a renowned Shakespeare professor who speaks almost entirely in verse, has named his three daughters after famous Shakespearean women. When the sisters return to their childhood home, ostensibly to care for their ailing mother, but really to lick their wounds and bury their secrets, they discover that everything they've been running from-one another, their small hometown, and themselves-might offer more than they ever expected. This story is about sisters, the power of books, and the places we decide to call home.
